Free Service Brings Seniors “Home for the Holidays”

Colorado Springs, CO - American Medical Response (AMR) is providing free wheelchair transportation to seniors in nursing facilities so they can spend Christmas with their families.

On December 25th, 2006 at 9:00 AM, A Gentleman will be transported from Mount Saint Francis Nursing Center, 7665 Assisi Heights to home. News media representatives are welcome to attend. An AMR Emergency Medical Technician (EMT) and the gentleman will be available to talk about what “Home for the Holidays” means to each of them. The media is also welcome to follow the transport to the destination, (family home), and talk with the family.

“We’re pleased to offer this special service as our gift to the community,” said Ted Sayer, AMR Director of Operations.

AMR has offered this service in El Paso County for the past 27 years. Each year AMR provides transportation to 12-15 seniors to be home with their family on Christmas.

American Medical Response Inc., (www.amr.net <<http://www.amr.net/>>) America’s leading provider of medical transportation, is locally operated in 36 states and the District of Columbia. More than 18,000 AMR paramedics, EMTs and other professionals transport nearly four million patients nationwide each year in emergency, critical and non-emergency situations. Operating a fleet of approximately 4,400 vehicles, AMR is headquartered in Greenwood Village, CO.
